Butfest 25

Sunday 24 August

This summer, Butfest 25 promises a day – and night – to remember

Hosted at The Oyster on Sunday 24 August, this beloved event starts as a traditional village fête and transforms into a lively music festival as the sun goes down..

The afternoon offers all the classic favourites: stalls, games, delicious local food and drink, and a dog show with fun & family-friendly vibes. It's the perfect countryside outing for locals and visitors alike.

A full line-up of live music and DJs takes over as the day continues, expect the unexpected. Dazzling fireworks, upbeat acoustic sets, old school vinyl, high-energy mix of funk, disco, house and our beloved techno to keep the party going.

Entry is free, and everyone's welcome – whether you're in it for the cake stalls or the dancing, please remember, you're a stranger here, but only once.

Nigel Brame, founder and spokesperson for the event said:

"Butfest is about coming together – past, present and future – with something for everyone. Come when you are ready, stay as long as you dare!!!"

INDIAN NIGHT

It takes a some seriously special people to ensure that a theme night is one to remember

Those who came to join us are the reason we are still here. New friends and old meant that Indian Night was fantastic
Thank you all.

The Summer Solstice Celebrations began at dawn on Shingle Street. Early risers gathered to welcome the sun with swimming, laughter, and a glass of bubbles.

The day unfolded beautifully, culminating in a vibrant evening gathering at The Oyster. A heartfelt thanks to Jacklin and Smith for their incredible live set and to Ash Carr for playing us out. The 'house' DJ's were, as always epic, thank you.

An unforgettable way to mark the longest day of the year with old friends and new friends in true Oyster style same time next year ??

QUIZ NIGHT

The QUIZ has picked up the pace, 'Nigella' aka Millie brings her 'A' Game every other Wednesday evening. 5 rounds, 10 questions per round and a little curve ball thrown into the mix.

Letters round proved to be kill or cure, Suffolk & Good led the pack with a very respectable score of 43 leaving all the other teams in their wake.

High House Heroes ultimately walked away victorious with both the crown and a bottle of pop in true Oyster style.

Grab your people and join us for a pizza and little brain exercise in excellent company.

Pub opens @ 6pm QUIZ starts at 7:30pm CALL to book 07398 025740
